

#218 April 2015 Issue

- Grand Vin Red 2012 : 92/100

« Slightly more modern in style, the 2012 La Clape Grand Vin is sensational blend »

- Grand Vin White 2013: 90/100

« beautiful purity of fruit and, certainly, there's no loss of focus or tension. Drink this beauty anytime over the coming years »

- Classique Red 2012: 90/100 « an outstanding blend. It's also a smoking value »

Wine Spectator

November 30th 2015 Issue

THE LANGUEDOC EARNS RESPECT

« Notable White wines include Château d'Anglès la Clape Grand Vin White 2013 » (89pts; $29)

December 15th 2015 Issue

Grand Vin Red 2010 (89pts; $29)

#1 rated Languedoc in this issue

FRANCE

Languedoc-Roussillon

89 Château d'Anglès Mourvèdre-Syrah-Grenache La Clape Grand Vin 2010 $29

A polished, well-defined red, with a streak of mineral flavors surrounding the plum, mocha and dried berry notes. Hints of cigar box, leather and dried herb sail into the spice-tinged finish. Drink now. 3,000 cases made.—G.S.

ERIC & VIANNEY FABRE
Owners & Winemakers

87 Château d'Anglès Syrah-Grenache-Mourvèdre La Clape Classique 2012 $18 A dense, muscular red, framed with a tangy acidity that highlights the dried plum, sun-dried cherry and grilled herb flavors. Savory spice and meaty aromas add definition through the mineral- and underbrush-accented finish. Drink now through 2018. 6,000 cases made.—G.S.

Decanter

February 2015 Issue

Stephen Spurrier:

« Grand Vin white 2012 has us thinking of la Mission Haut-Brion's white and an incredibly elegant Mourvèdre dominated Grand Vin red 2011 »

September 2015 Issue

Andrew Jefford, What I've been drinking this month:

« I admire the work of Eric FABRE and his family at Château d'Anglès in Languedoc's la Clape. Grand Vin white 2013 is surely the best ever»

May 2015

17/20 Ch d'Anglès, Grand Vin 2013, La Clape, Languedoc

Jancis Robinson
JancisRobinson.com